Dear Harold,

Sorry this isn't typed, it's late at night and I don't want to wake everyone up pounding keys. I hope you can read my writing.

I hate formalities and I don't care too much for chauvenists either, so the more informal we are the better it is, as far as I'm concerned.

I'll be glad to save any reports on the Ray case from the local papers, I intended to keep them anyway. Let me know whether you want me to collect them and send them all at once, or send them weekly, or what. So far, the coverage has been pretty poor. There have only been 3 articles, and I had to dig those out of the back pages.

My Zapruder film finally came. Considering the number of copies made before mine, it's in pretty good shape. It's alot clearer than I thought it would be. The color is faded, but after having only black & white photos for so long it's more than I had hoped for. I knew I was paying alot more for it than it was worth, but if I want something bad enough I'm willing to excuse one "rip-off" now and then.

Word has gotten around, through some of my big mouth friends and relatives, that I have the film and am fairly knowledgable about the assassination. As a result, in the past week I have gotten invitations from 1 school and 2 "social organizations" to speak on the assassination. There are alot more people around here interested in the assassination-conspiracy idea than I thought. At least once a week I read in the paper that some group is having Cyril Wecht in to speak on the assassination and the autopsy

Speaking of the autopsy, I noticed on the cover [redacted] page of Frame-Up that you have written some things on Kennedy's Post Mortem. When you get the time, I'd appreciate it if you would send me some information - cost etc. - on the Post-Mortem books. That's one part of the Kennedy assassination that I'm deeply interested in but have been unable to find much "intelligent" information on, so I'd really like to read what you've found.

Once again, good luck on the Ray case. I hope to hear in the near future that a new trial has been granted.

Sincerely,
Karen
